WAR WITH SPAIN IMMINENT

American Consulate Surrounded With Artillery

PROMPT ACTION IS DEMANDED

Consul-General Fitz Lee Cables That Army Officers are Leading the Threatening Mob.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Jan. 13—The administration has been awakened to an attitude toward the Spanish cause in Cuba that is of very grave portent. The state department has just received cables from Consul-General Fitz. Lee which indicate that mob violence led by army officers, has taken possession of the Cuban capital and the lives and property of American citizens are in serious danger.

While the mob has as yet only vented its fury upon the autonomist organs of the city, there is no doubt in the mind of General Lee that it is directed against Americans, and the attitude that this country has seen fit to adopt.

The American consulate is in such imminent danger that General Blanco has surrounded it with infantry and artillery. Every street leading to the consulate is guarded by the military to prevent an attack if possible.

General Lee cables this morning to the state department that the condition of affairs is serious and is such as would warrant prompt and imperative action on the part of this government.

WARSHIPS READY TO SAIL.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Key West, Jan. 13.—Capt. Sigsbee, of the battleship Maine, telegraphed the Navy Department this morning that the Maine and the Marblehead had coaled and were awaiting signals to sail according to instructions from the Navy Department.

GROWING CALMER AT HAVANA.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Official reports received at the State Department from Havana this morning say that the disorder caused by the mob under the leadership of Spanish officers has nearly subsided. Two cables received from General Lee do not give the details of the disturbance. It is said, however, that American citizens either at the consulate or elsewhere are not now in immediate danger. The Navy Department has dispatched no war vessels to Havana as the presence of ships of war is not considered necessary.

A particular denial is made of the report that the Maine has been sent there. She is still at Key West. Orders were issued yesterday directing her to take part in the coming evolutions of the squadron. These orders have not been revoked. It was said at the navy department that no vessels would be ordered to Havana unless it should appear that the lives of American citizens were in danger. It was said, moreover, that the Maine would not be the vessel sent in any event. The quick-sailing cruiser, Marblehead, now at Key West, would be the vessel selected.

KEEPING UP STEAM.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Key West, 1:30 p. m.—The Main and Marblehead and the torpedo boats Cushing, Ericsson, Dupont and Porter are anxiously awaiting orders from Washington which are expected at any moment. All hands are kept aboard and a full head of steam is kept up.

A Scrap of Paper Tonight.

All day crowds of people have surrounded the boards on which were displayed pictures of the popular home players who give the comedy, "A Scrap of Paper," at the Academy of Music tonight. The scenes are from another play but the costuming and the posing in the scenes is so excellent as to promise a performance tonight free from amateurishness even though it is an amateur company. The seats have been going rapidly as every one wants to see what home talent can do and the indications are for a full house. If you have not secured your seats better do so at once. Tickets on sale at Gardner's drug store.

AT THE NATION'S CAPITAL

Currency Reform Hearing Continued Today

PRESIDENT HAS MANY CALLERS

Senate Acts in the Cuban Matter. DeLome Gets a Cable from Cuban Secretary—Naval Service.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Jan. 13—The hearing of the monetary commission in behalf of its bill for currency reform was resumed before the committee on banking and currency of the house today. T. J. Bush, of Alabama, who was heard yesterday, gave additional explanations and urged the case of redemption under the plan of the commission.

QUIZZING M'KINLEY.

President McKinley had many members of Congress call on him before Congress met today and invited them to discuss the Havana situation. To all of them he made a personal request that there be no hasty action by Congress. Those who saw the President were reticent as to what he said.

DE LOME GETS A CABLEGRAM.

The Spanish Minister Dupuy De Lome received dispatches from Secretary Congosto to Cuba stating that there had been an outbreak in Havana but that it was over and that no apprehension was felt of further trouble of a serious nature.

SENATE RESOLUTIONS.

The Senate passed resolutions calling on the President for information as to what measures had been taken for the protection of American citizens on the island of Cuba or waters adjacent thereto. The Senate then went into executive session to consider the Hawaiian treaty.

NEW NAVAL BILL.

Secretary Long today submitted to chairman Boutelle of the House Committee on naval affairs a copy of the bill to combine the line and engineering corps of the navy and thereby increase the efficiency of the naval service. The bill was prepared by a special board headed by assistant Secretary Roosevelt.

NO REST FOR THE WEARY.

Charges of Bribery Still Fill the Atmosphere.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Columbus, O. Jan. 13.—The combine leaders declare today that the bribery charges against Hanna will be vigorously pressed in the legislature and that a committee will be sent to Washington to lay the matter before the United States Senate. Considerable interest is being manifested in the probable action of Senator Foraker when these charges are brought against his colleague. Hanna laughes at the charges and says that his enemies will make no further move but are simply bluffing.

Rifles for Sugar Planters.

Havana, Jan. 11—General Blanco has pardoned 118 people who were suffering imprisonment in the penal colony of the Island of Pines.

The Governor General has ordered 400 rifles to sugar planters who may wish to arm their employees in order to protect their property against insurgents. The latter continue burning the sugar cane.

The death is announced today of George Mathew Fowler, British Vice-Consul in the city of Cienfuegos, and well known throughout the island.

PICQUART IN PRISON.

Aftermath of the Esterhazy Court Martial.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris Jan. 13.—In consequence of the relations of the Esterhazy court-martial Colonel Picquart, formerly of the war department who brought the charges against Esterhazy on which he was recently acquitted of treason by the court-martial, was arrested today and confined in the fortress at Montvalerian where he will remain until released by the finding of the court-martial.

WORK OF THE TORNADO.

Forty Lives and a Million in Property Destroyed.

Fort Smith, Ark., Jan. 12—Two score of human lives and upwards of $1,000,000 worth of property were destroyed by a tornado which burst upon this city a few minutes past 11 o'clock last night.

The storm struck near the National cemetery and tore its way through the entire city, leaving its path marked by death and desolation. Men, women and children were awakened without a moment's warning to meet death by falling walls or in the flames which engulfed many of the wrecked buildings.

It is now thought all the persons in the wrecked buildings have been accounted for. The citizens relief committee has $10,000 in hand for assisting sufferers.

President Robinson, of the Frisco railroad, unsolicited, sent his check for $1,000. The Missouri Pacific railroad also sent $1,000. Business is practically abandoned all over the city, and men of all classes are assisting in cleaning the debris.

YANKEE TARS ILL USED.

So Says J. Havelock Wilson, and He Claims He Knows.

J. Havelock Wilson, the English member of Parliament, spoke on last evening before the Social Reform club on the subject, "Do the sailors in the American merchant marine suffer wrongs unknown in British and other foreign ships?"

He began by saying that he became a sailor when he was 13 years old, and had been at sea fourteen years and therefore ought to know something of the subject.

He maintained that the English seamen were better treated than the American. And he said this was due to the British board of trade, which granted the certificates to masters and mates and exercised the closest kind of supervision over the affairs of seamen. It caused the passage of laws providing for the safety of sailors and saw to it that cruelty at sea did not go unpunished.—N. Y. Sun.

Railroad Commission Matters.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says:

"Your correspondent had a talk with Chairman Caldwell today. The latter did not expect the presentment to take exactly the form it has taken. But as he believes in the idea of Solicitor Pou, that it is the best way to settle quickly and definitely the question of the powers of the commission to force witnesses to answer, it seems that the commission will not tomorrow press the matter of contempt against Andrews, Miller and Potts, but will let it lie until the Superior Court acts on the presentments. Up to now no bill has been returned. There was a refusal to let any one see the presentments.

Chairman Caldwell admits that subpoenas have been issued for the officers of the Seaboard Air Line and Atlantic Coast Line systems, and says: "We intend to put all the railroads on the same footing."

It was impossible to ascertain when the officials of the two last-named roads are to be before the commission—perhaps tomorrow.

Violet Reception.

A merry party of young people enjoyed a "violet reception" last night at the residence of Mrs. T. H. Mayo, on East Market street. The mild, balmy weather and the odor of "sweet violets" almost made those present think that springtime had come.

The chief feature of the reception was a contest in answering questions on "A Floral Love Tale." The prize was won by Mise Eunice Wood, of Winston—eight questions. The prize was a handsome booklet, Flowers of Friendship, by Oliver Wendell Homes.

Booby prize won by John Clendenin—no questions. Prize, A. B. C. book.

STOCK MARKET IS NERVOUS

But No Important Declines Have Occurred.

NO ACTIVITY IN NAVY YARDS.

Only Three Vessels at Brooklyn Yards—No Orders From Washington Up To Noon.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

New York, Jan. 13—The stock market is a little nervous today as a result of the war scare but there have been no important declines. Wall street is not much disturbed. There is no unusual activity in the Brooklyn Navy yards. The daily routine continues. Havana had no enlivening effect. This is partly due to the fact that only three vessels are now in the yards, the Massachusetts, the Texas and the Brooklyn. The officers reported the vessels in fine condition and said they could sail at short notice.

The Massachusetts sails tomorrow for Southern waters to join the North Atlantic squadron. The Texas sails on Jan 17. Orders were issued several days ago.

The Brooklyn will remain in the yards. No news of trouble has been received at the yards from Washington up to noon.

J. WILEY.

The walls of Vanderbilts palace will crack sure enough. The French Broad river will back-pedal and the Roan and the Brushy will quake to their roots. J. Wiley Shook, the greatest of living open letter writers, has just sent to the Asheville Citizen a wide open letter breathing menace and dire disaster to the republican party from every pore.

J. Wiley runs his eagle eye over the history of North Carolina for the past thirty years and sums it all up in a few paragraphs pregnant with prophecy after the fact. Then he draws a few warnings from it for his own party if the civil service bars are not let down. Hear him:

"The voters of this country in 1896 decided by a very large majority that they wanted a sound currency maintained and an international system inaugurated according to republican ideas. The administration elected in both executive and legislative branches have complied with their commission from the people in these respects are highly gratified with their choice but when more than 50,000 democratic office holders who, each in his place, is as much objectionable to those who supported the republican ticket in the election of 1896 as was the opponents of the ticket themselves, are permitted to hold those places through the outrageous operation of a civil service system, all this gratification will be lost, and in the following election the responsible party will be hurled from power by one of the most terrific landslides ever known in American politics.

If something is not speedily done, watch the predictions of the proffessor."

The administration "have complied with exact perfection" you will please note. Some of us had thought the perfection of the compliance was not quite perfect but the dictum of J. Wiley may be presumed to have settled it to the contrary.

We cannot help however contemplating with some complacency the landslide that is to "hurl from power" the present regime. We did not know that landslides made a specialty of hurling but we shall not be over nice so the business be neatly done.

The populists of Georgia will test the initiative and referendum in their party affairs.—Exchange.

Is this some new menace to the Honorable Thomas Watson? Is it to be followed by a fresh deluge from that sensitive soul? Would it be out of place to inquire how large a charge of the stuff they propose to employ and how near one may stand behind a tree? Can it be that the populists of this State thoughtlessly mixed some of it in their "party affairs?" All of this is very puzzling to a plain, ordinary citizen.

With Durrant hanged, Mrs. Nack sentenced, Luetgert lost, China divided and J. Wiley already in print the strain on Corbett and Fitz is too great for even their well trained vocal cords.

The season is now here when the almanacs of the various metropolitan journals will assist, for the consideration of a quarter, a willing people to know as little as possible.

A writer in the New York Journal bursts into spontaneous flame as follows:

"A new star has arisen in the east, whose light, I predict, will pale Mr. Bryan's ineffectual fire long ere the next national convention assembles. I refer to the Hon. Robert A. Van Wyck, mayor of the imperial city of New York, who so gloriously led the Democracy to victory in November."

Why stop at a star? Is there not also a full-orbed moon "arisen in the east"—the Honorable Richard Croker? Are not the streets of Gotham flooded knee-deep with the light that pours from his countenance? Has it not obliterated any number of ineffectual conflagrations already? The writer sparkles afresh:

"In character and capacity Robert A. Van Wyck meets the requirements of the presidential standard."

Is not the capacity of Mr. Croker's waistcoat nearer the democratic presidential standard by some inches? The character is a small matter.

Where did it go to? Echo answers, "Where?"—Progressive Farmer.

That was very rude of Echo. She should have answered "Where to?"

It will be noted what an accession of patriotic ardor the Spanish officer has suffered since the report that the Cubans ran during an engagement.

England goes them one better as usual. Germany asked for only a part but England demands to be allowed to boss the whole ranch.

ARTIST LANDOR'S EXPERIENCES.

Tortured by The Thiebetans Until He Went Crazy.

London, Jan. 13—The Daily Chronicle in a description of the experiences in Thibet of Henry Savage Landor, the artist writer and traveler, who narrowly escaped death at the hands of the Thibetans, when endeavoring last autumn to reach Hassa, the capital of Thibet, says: "His valuable diary, maps, and other papers include interesting photographs, only interrupted when Mr. Landor himself was under torture, of a native companion tied naked to a tree and slashed and bruised by a circle of hideous beings dancing around, jeering at their victim.

"Another photograph taken after the rescue, shows two unrecognizable men, all the hair burned off their heads, the skin lacerated and seamed with burns and the eyes two ghastly slits. Mr. Landor lost one eye.

"The Thibetans held white hot irons close to the captives without touching them. This was practiced day after day. Mr. Landor was rescued when nearly dead, after being three days without food and water.

"Mr. Landor has already lost his reason. After three hours attention he regained sufficient consciousness to say where he had concealed his cameras. Mr. Landor was carried to Almora, in the Lumaon district, of North India, by slow stages, from which point he dispatched runners with news for home. He recovered the confiscated diary, maps and surveys, and has altogether 200 photographs and water colors. His instruments he was obliged to bury in the Himalayas. It it not probable that Mr. Landor will ever be well enough to return."

MONTE CARLO GAMBLING.

Shareholders Accept the Prince of Monaco's Terms.

Monte Carlo, Jan. 11—The shareholders of the Casino, at a meeting held today, accepted the conditions stipulated by the Prince of Monaco for prolonging the gambling concession until 1947.

The terms involve the payment of $6,400,000, in addition to the payments under the previous contract, and include an immediate cash payment of $2,000,000 to the Prince of Monaco personally.

The company propose to raise a loan which will result in reducing the shares by 20 francs immediately and by 35 francs later.

Populist Conference.

St. Louis, Jan. 12.—The conference called by the national organization of the people's party went into executive session at Masonic Hall today, with about 50 prominent populists present. Most of those in attendance are known as middle-of-the-road populists, very few of the national executive committee of the party who had been invited having accepted. The conference will probably be in session two days.

The report of the railroad commission will show that the Atlantic Coast Line has in this State 2,961 employes, the Southern 2,674, the Seaboard Air Line 2,408, and miscellaneous roads 2,201.

THE ISBELL CORUNDUM CO.

Is Organized With a Capital Stock of $250,000.

A. H. Isbell, of Shooting Creek, Clay county, well known throughout Western North Carolina as a prospector for and miner of corundum, has just returned from New York city, where he completed the organization of the Isbell Corundum Co., with a capital stock of $250,000.

Mr. Isbell passed through Asheville Monday, accompanied by W. P. Swarts, of Milwaukee, and Prof. A. MacKenzie, of Montreal, Canada.

Mr. Swarts is the representative of the E. P. Allis company of Milwaukee, the largest iron manufacturers in the world. His visit is for the purpose of making estimates for a full plant of machinery at the mines, which will embrace a mill for crushing, separating and cleaning the corundum ready for market.

This machinery is expected to be in place in about 90 days. The output is expected to reach 6,000 pounds of mineral per day, ready to be made into emery wheels. The machinery will weigh between seventy-five and eighty tons and will cost from $10,000 to $15,000.

Prof. MacKenzie is a noted geologist and mineralogist, and his visit is for the purpose of investigating additional property which the new company contemplates purchasing.

The property owned by the Isbell Corundum company is located on Shooting Creek, in Clay county, about 20 miles from Murphy, the terminus of the Murphy branch of the Southern railway.

Mr. Isbell informed the Citizen that the vein of corundum is 210 feet wide and practically inexhaustible, and the quality is of the very best.

In a test with wheels made of other similar minerals corundum showed a cutting power one-third of an inch in excess of all competitors on a 2-inch bar of solid steel.

Mr. Isbell's associates in the new company are New York men of large wealth and it is expected that the work will give a new life to this almost exclusively North Carolina industry.—Asheville Citizen.

LOADED WITH KLONDIKE GOLD.

Over a Hundred Thousand Dollars and 25 Men to Enjoy It.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 12.—Steamer "Al-ki," arriving today from Alaska, brought 35 men from Klondike and a hundred thousand in gold dust, forty thousand of which was in the possession of a young Norwegian, Nels Johnson, who had been on the Yukon a little over a year.

A few days previous to leaving Dawson City he sold his interest in his claim for $60,000, and is now on the way to Norway to enjoy his suddenly accumulated fortune.

The other $60,000 is nearly equally distributed among the returned miners.

The greatest speed record was made by James McCauley and Richard Butler, of Victoria, who came from Dawson City to Dyea in eighteen and a half days. They left Dawsom City on December 12th.

Why Avirett Withdrew.

P. W. Avirett says that he returned his fees as attorney in the railroad lease case because it had been frequently stated that he entered on the suit against his conscience and convictions and simply for money. He declares there are members of the directorate of the North Carolina Railroad with whom he declined to come in contact, as he says: "For the same reason that any gentleman naturally avoids contact with persons or things whose use in the economy of nature he is much puzzled to account for."—Charlotte Observer.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

VICTIMS OF GOITER.

The Disease Is Brought on by Drinking Snow Water.

The valley of the Rhone has been quite noted for its goiter victims, although I am happy to say that through the increased watchfulness of the authorities there now is an abatement of the disease. Many different causes are assigned to the terrible affliction—this enlargement of the glands of the throat, goiter, or "big neck," as it is sometimes called—and even the best informed are far from being unanimous as to its origin or prevention. The peasants themselves say it is brought on by the habitual use of snow and glacial water. The water is so cold it acts as a counter irritant, and so inflames the throat, but this explanation hardly holds, as the inhabitants of the upper regions are not so often afflicted as are the people in the lower valleys. The use of chemically impure water, especially hard water, is given as a cause.

The experiment has been made where the water of certain wells was used to the exclusion of all other water. Within a short time goiter symptoms began to manifest themselves where none had been before. Sometimes this disease is epidemic. An instance was noted where in a garrison one out of every 20 men became afflicted. Infants are seldom born with goiter, but after it once takes hold the progress of the disease is very rapid. I believe that it is rarely fatal, but because of this enlargement of the glands and the consequent disfigurement of the throat it is most repulsive, and yet the natives are so accustomed to seeing it that they do not seem to care. It probably is simply a source of discomfort rather than mortification. In fact, in some portions of France, Italy and Switzerland a goiter is a thing to be prized and to be exhibited, for its possession exempts a man from military service. Young men have been known to resort to certain wells supposed to convey this poison to the blood that they might evade conscription. When Savoy was annexed to France, vigorous measures were adopted to stamp out if possible this hateful disease. There was a heavy penalty for drinking the water of forbidden wells, and then the little children were treated in the hope of curing them. Lozenges of iodine were administered, and out of 5,000 children 2,000 were cured, and more would have been helped had not the parents ignorantly opposed the giving of the remedies. The villages also were cleaned and sanitary measures insisted upon. For, aside from all other causes, it is quite agreed that goiter may be transmitted or be sporadic. Like diphtheria, it is a filth disease, and often has its origin in the negligent habits of the villagers. These peasants refuse to live elsewhere than in the old "dorfer" (villages), each morning going far away to the fields, but returning at night to their overcrowded homes, where men, women and children, cows, goats and donkeys dwell together fraternally.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

SHOWED HIS BAGGAGE.

There Wasn't Much of It, but It Satisfied the Clerk.

It is not always necessary to travel with three or four saratogas, a dress suit case, a bundle of rugs and a bird cage in order to obtain good accommodations at hotels.

Occasionally there does exist throughout this hospitable land a hotel which does not require a certificate as to a person's ancestry, status in life, past history and future movements before its clerk permits one the privilege of a room. At least this is the firm belief advanced by a young Chicago couple just back from their wedding trip. Down east one day the train wended its way through the woods and heights of the Adirondacks and miles away from civilization halted at a lone platform bordered by a piny wildness too alluring to be slighted by westerners fresh from prairie lands.

"Train stops 1 hour and 15 minutes," announced the young husband who had made a dash for the conductor. Out on the platform and up the charming road wandered these two, and time flew. However, they kept an eye on their watches and reached the platform with ten minutes to spare.

But the train was gone.

A lone man perched at the end of the platform explained in a bored way in the face of their indignation that it was 15 minutes and not 1 hour and 15 minutes that the train stopped.

"When is the next train?" the travelers begged.

"There isn't any," sweetly said the native.

"Where is a hotel?" they shouted.

"Up the road the other way," the sphinx said in a tired way and turned to watch the antics of a grasshopper.

Up the road the other way they went and discovered in the wilderness a hotel with a haughty clerk, electric lights and all modern improvements.

"Any baggage?" inquired the man at the desk as the young man registered.

The travelers gasped in consternation as they stared wildly at each other with the sudden shock of realizing that trousseau, traveling bags and umbrellas were speeding miles away from them.

"Oh, yes!" gulped the young husband airily. "Baggage — of course." He plunged into one pocket, drew out a small comb, his wife's powder box and its accompanying square of chamois, which he gravely laid before the clerk.

That gentleman never moved an eyelash.

"Front!" he called. "No. 227!"

The heroine of this story still claims the imperturbable clerk was a mind reader, but her husband says it was all due to her helpless, appealing air and the streak of cinders on her nose.—Chicago News.

Business Methods.

"What! You begging here too? I saw you only a little while ago begging on Schiller place."

"Yes, I have a branch establishment there."—Fliegende Blatter.

GOT TWO MOONSHINERS.

Jim Wyrick and Nat Neeley Caught by a Posse After Some Shooting.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Jan. 11.—Deputy United States Marshal Young and a posse of four men have arrested Jim Wyrick and Nat Neeley, two of the most desparate moonshiners in the mountains. The posse found the still house in the monntain near Leroan, Mercer county, and undertook to surround the moonshiners about midnight, when they were ambushed and fired upon. In the fight which ensued two moonshiners were wounded, but the posse escaped injury. The moonshiners retreated taking the still, but leaving their mashes and other paraphernalia.

After the defeat of the moonshiners they were followed and Jim Wyrick, their chief, was captured. That night the barns, outhouses, and haystacks belonging to Lee Chester and Capt. George Caldwell, ex-County Surveyor, who informed on the moonshiners, were set on fire and burned by the revengeful men, who threatened to kill all of the posse. Before daylight, however, Neeley, who is charged with having burned the property, was captured and taken to the county seat to be tried by the State authorities.

Wyrick was put on the train and brought to this city, and is now in jail, and will be tried by the United States Court for moonshining, assault with intention to kill, and incendiarism. Wyrick is said to be proprietor of fully a dozen stills.

GIFT FROM VANDERBILT.

Sends Shrubs and Plants to the Governor for Mansion Square.

Mr. Charles McNamee, of Biltmore, general counsel and manager for Mr. George Vanderbilt, has sent Gov. Russell, with his compliments, some hundred shrubs and plants for the Mansion Square.

Mr. McNamee delegated Mr. Vanderbilt's landscape gardner, Mr. Bottomly, to come here and make plans for the location of the plants and shrubs in the square. Mr. Bottomly spent the day in the city yesterday preparing plans for the square as they ought to be, and these will be submitted to the Governor next week for his approval. Mr. Bottomly left in the afternoon for Biltmore. He will return next week, when his drawings for the location of plants and shrubbery will be complete.

The plants and shrubs, which are a gift from Mr. Vanderbilt to the State, are of the rarest and most choice varieties.—Morning Post.

SPANISH ELEMENT INCENSED.

Resent Furnishing of Aid to Cuban by United States.

Madrid, Jan. 11.—A dispatch to the Imparcial from Havana says the sending of supplies from the United States to aid the indignant population of Cuba has aroused deep animosity among the Spaniards, who, it is added, are increased at the pretext thus given to the American consuls and the Yankee element to interfere in Cuban affairs.

It is alleged that the funds will be used to widen the breach between the Cuban peasantry and the Spaniards. It is further asserted that the American newspaper correspondents have been instructed to exaggerate the sufferings of the peasantry in order to again arouse public feeling in the United States, so as to provide Washington with an excuse to intervene.

Nuggets in the Crops of Wild Geese.

Santa Cruz, Cal., Jan. 11—The latest bonanza is reported from Boulder creek, near here, where, in the croops of wild geese killed yesterday, were found two gold nuggets.

The geese had been feeding on the earth thrown up from a well that is being sunk, and as soon as the prospectors can get the outfit they propose to search the place and examine the earth.

New Silver Certificates

Washington, Jan. 11.—The retirement of the entire issue of $100 silver certificates, caused by the discovery of counterfeits, has made it necessary to print a large amount of paper money in smaller denominations. By order of Assistant Secretary Vanderlip the director of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing was authorized today to print and deliver to the United States Treasurer silver certificates and Treasury notes of 1890 in these amounts: Twenties, 100,000 sheets, amounting to $8,000,000; fifties, 15,000 sheets, amounting to $3,000,000; ones 500,000 sheets, amounting to $2,000,000; twos, 250,000 sheets, amounting to $2,000,000.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds. I cannot say enough for its merits.' Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

We regret to learn that Mrs. E. Hodgin, mother of John A. Hodgin, is very sick at her home in this city.

Miss Eunice Wood, of Winston, returned home today after a pleasant visit to Miss Julia Pearce in this city.

Wheat has become of the movement to build a new jail? Did not a recent grand jury report the old jail as unsafe?

Prof. Clarence R. Brown will go to Souther Pines tomorrow to attend the meeting of the Horticultural Society, of which he is a member.

President Spencer, of the Commercial Bank, of Charlotte, was in the city today. He is also president of the Henrietta Cotton Mills.

McClamroch Bros., the plasterers and grate and mantel dealers, call your attention to a recent purchase of mantels, which they advertise in the penny column.

Ladies' cloth top and tan laced shoes, and a very fine line of vici kid button shoes, are advertised today by Thacker & Brockmann. They also offer good common sense button shoes at $1.25 and 1.34.

The second section of the vestibule due here at 10:44 p. m. was several hours late last night, on account of the transfer at the wreck on the Western of Alabama, which was told about in The Telegram yesterday.

Mr. H. L. Stribling, who has been conducting a fancy fruit and candy store next door to Houston Bros., and whose steam peanut roaster has attracted such wide spread attention, has moved and connected himself with the Kandy Kitchen, next door to Fishblate-Katz-Rankin Co., where he will be pleased to have his old friends call on him.

Our High Point manager is a hustler, when it comes to running. He writes us today that the mail being late he ran a mile to catch a freight and sent his news by it. We appreciate his efforts to furnish the news to our patrons there, but the freight failed to make delivery in time as we received the letter late last night.

An Interesting Visit.

Yesterday afternoon a Telegram man drove out to Pomona, and took a hurried look at a part of the very extensive business carried on there by Mr. J. Van Lindley, in nursery and flower culture. A number of men were seen in the fields transplanting young nursery stock.

We only took a hasty view of this work, but spent more time in the green houses, among the flowering plants, inhaling the rich fragrance of the blooms and looking at the process of rooting and growing the different plants. It will pay anyone who has not visited this busy and business place to do so. Mr. Lindley, the polished gentleman that he is, will show you every courtesy, and make you feel at home.

CHARMING HOME WEDDING.

Miss Sadie J. Sloan and Mr. Peter D. Watt United in Marriage.

The home of Mr. Robert Lindsay, corner of Sycamore and Green streets, was beautifully decorated in evergreens last night in honor of the marriage of Miss Sadie J. Sloan, of Winston, grand daughter of Mrs. Lindsay, to Mr. Peter Dillard Watt, of Reidsville.

The ceremony was performed on the stroke of 9 by Rev. D. I. Craig, of the Presbyterian church of Reidsville.

Miss Annie Sloan, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. John Watt, brother of the groom, was best man.

The attendants were Miss Lottie Peyton with C. A. Penn, of Reidsville: Miss Birdie Follin, of Winston, with F. Womack, of Reidsville.

The bride was given away by her brother, James Sloan. The bride wore a brown cloth traveling suit and carried bride roses. The attendants carried carnations. Numerous handsome presents and telegrams of congratulation testified to the popularity of the couple.

The groom was accompanied from Reidsville by Messrs. John, Eugene, R. L. and Wm. Watt, R. P. Richardson, Sam and C. A. Penn, F. Womack, A. J. Burton, M. A. Apple and Miss Lillie Watt Penn.

From Winston there were present Mr. James Sloan, Miss Annie Sloan, A. H. Galloway and Miss Birdie Follin.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. David Schenck, Jr., Mrs. Thos. Sloan, Miss Nettie Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. Dalton, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. N. Shields and Messrs. R. G. Vaughn and John Schenck.

The bridal party left on the 9:52 train for Reidsville where they will make their home.

The bride was one of Winston's most charming young ladies and was well known here, where she has visited repeatedly.

The groom is a popular employe in the government service.

A BARRICADE OF BOOKS.

Or How the Major Went After The Judge Yesterday.

Except to the attorneys and parties to the case a civil suit is not a very entertaining matter; even the presiding judge has been known to yawn, perchance to nod while the attorneys pelt the jury with chunks of legal lore. The court in session now is no exception and it is only now and then that the monotony is relieved by a ludicrous situation or a flash of wit for which latter His Honor, Judge Robinson, has quite the Hibernian handiness.

In the case of A. H. Motley et als vs. Southern Finishing and Warehouse Company, Shaw & Scales and Bynum, Bynum & Taylor appear for the plaintiff and Major Stedman and attorney King for the defence. The plaintiff had stored tobacco in defendant's ware house which he alleges was defective and damaged his tobacco and accordingly asks that his feelings be soothed and his tobacco mended by a verdict for $2,000. His Honor had given a ruling contrary to the defendant and and the Major was loaded for that decision. He had placed himself behind a barricade of books five feet nine inches high and the Major is only five ten. Over the top of the pile His Honor could see only the Majors silvery crown. His Honor: "It is useless to to quote authorities; you can't change my decision." The Major pulled down the top book and the upper half his countenance came into view. He read for a while. "You can't change my decision" reiterated the Judge. Down came the next volume and the whole of the Major's countenance appeared over the barricade. The Major read. The Judge listened. "You can't change me," said the Judge. Down came another book and the Majors cravat hove in sight. The Major read, the attorneys smiled, the jury looked puzzled and His Honor listened. "You can't," began the Judge. The Major thought differently and his shoulders appeared above the top of his fort and the bombardment continued. It will be a lasting regret with the Major that he had only succeeded in reducing his own fort to the half way point when the hour came to adjourn. His Honor rose and reached for his hat remarking as he did so "you can't change"— But the Major was contemplating the unused volumes and did not hear him.

It always shows, besides dirtying skirts. It is unnecessary for anyone to do it. A good shoe, a shoe such as we sell for $2.50 will look well until it is worn out. "Mr. Captain stop the ship, I want to get out and walk."

Now this little fellow did not make any such foolish request as the above, because he is a bright little boy and quick to recognize a good thing when he sees it.

What he Did Say, was This:

"Mother, won't you please quit buying me such poorly made garments, and get me a suit of the never-rip, button-never-come-off kind? They are made by that noble old lady, Mrs, Jane Hopkins, who has devoted her life to the construction of a suit for boys that will stand hard wear. The seams are all taped, with the pants made double seat and double knee, and as long as they last they will be sold at a you-take-the-profit price, by
